

Option 1

Up to one hour's coverage, commencing with the ceremony. You will receive a disk of all high resolution images of your entire wedding. Perfect for ceremony coverage followed by some on-the-spot photos of the bridal couple and/or friends & family.

Option 1 is generally only available on weekdays (Monday to Friday), however as a result of possible late cancellations or available dates, it is recommend that you enquire anyway as there may still be weekend bookings available.

Option 2

Up to two hours' coverage, commencing with the ceremony. You will receive a disk of all high resolution images of your entire wedding. A great option for ceremony coverage with plenty of time for relaxed photos at the same or other locations afterwards.

Option 2 is generally only available on weekdays (Monday to Friday), however as a result of possible late cancellations or available dates, it is recommend that you enquire anyway as there may still be weekend bookings available.

Option 3

Includes a full day's coverage (preparation/pre-ceremony until the reception begins, including a mock cake cutting), and a disk of all high resolution images of your entire wedding. This option gives you full coverage with all your wonderful unmarked high res images to keep. This is a very affordable option if you want the flexibility of doing your own album or choosing one at a later date.
